

Meet Array+

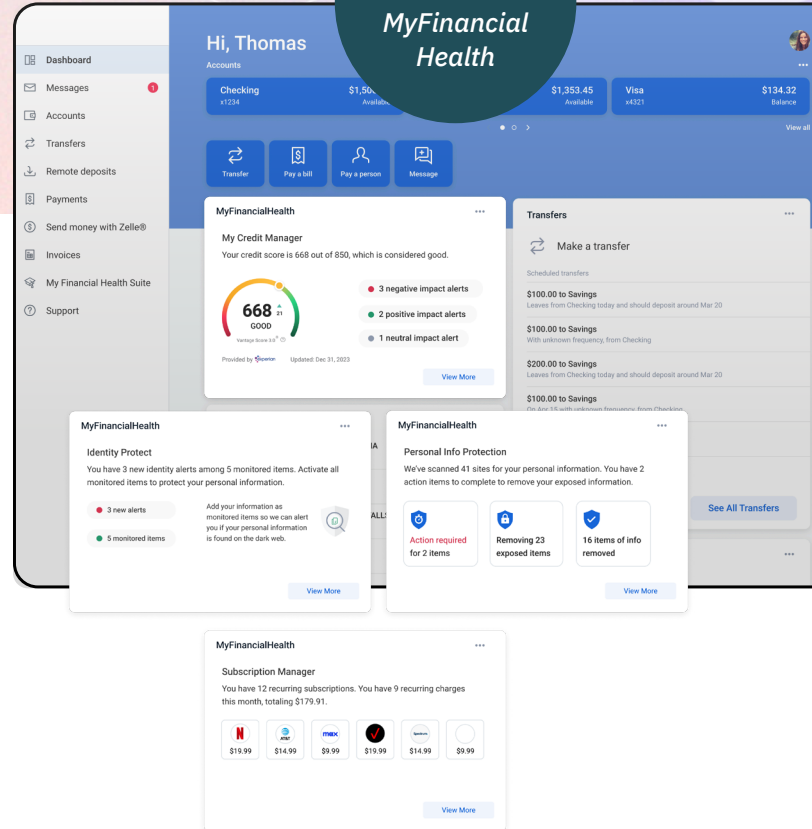

Our free to premium product suite is designed to drive non-interest income for you and financial progress for your consumers.

Available in Banno as MyFinancial Health

Array+ is an embeddable suite of premium financial tools that provides consumers with enhanced control over their financial well-being.

With upgrade options for features like Credit Score Monitoring, Identity Protection, Privacy Protection, and Subscription Management, Array+ offers a seamless way for users to manage key aspects of their financial life—all from within Banno.

With Array+, your users get free access, and when they upgrade to a paid plan, we share the revenue—creating a new non-interest income stream for you.

Deepen consumer engagement

Enrich consumer interaction with credit insights, proactive security alerts, privacy monitoring, and more.

Unlock non-interest income

Transform passive users into revenue generators through a revenue-sharing model.

Outshine the competition

Set your financial institution apart with cutting-edge tools that attract and retain consumers.
